NEWSLETTER January 2019

A VERY HAPPY AND PEACEFUL NEW YEAR
FROM THE
PARISH COUNCIL
AND MANAGEMENT TEAM OF TRIMINGHAM HALL

- We hope that you all had an enjoyable Christmas and wish you good health and a peaceful New Year and look forward to seeing you at our events during 2019.
- The Church looked very splendid it all the Christmas regalia and thank you to all who helped and those who visited and put such nice comments in the visitor's book. The refreshments in the Pilgrim Shelter were enjoyed by many, the light show on the church walls showing Christmas trees and snowflakes made a different effect for the outside of the church. It brightened up the church walls in green and white and was approved of by those passing the church in the dark.
- The concert by Broadland Youth Choir was enjoyed by a packed hall and it was a great success. Thank you to all who organised it and made the hall look the part for the concert
- On Sunday 13th January at 4pm, for your enjoyment, the pantomime Goldilocks and the Crazy Swans will be performed at the hall. Tickets are £6 for adults and £3 for children. (It has already been performed at Swafeld and Trunch before Christmas). There will be a Chocolate Tombola and refreshments will be served. Tickets are available from Trunch Stores, Liz 834965 or Linda 834349. Liz King is Goldilocks so please come along to support her in this endeavor. Oh no she isn't. Oh yes, she is.

- The Art Exhibition take place again at Trimmingham Hall in April and if you would like to exhibit and have not received an application form by the end of January please contact Dot on 833249 (after 6pm).

Alec's Mardle

(Alec Reynolds was born in Trimmingham in 1926 and has lived here all his life)

I was reading the EDP and saw the death of a man whose Mum and Dad used to come to the village on Saturdays and Sundays selling ice cream. The name was Mr and Mrs Puruzi. I mentioned to them that this village was having a Fete. I went to Norwich to get some ice cream from them and they put it in a container which kept it from melting. The vehicle I went in was a Red Cross Ambulance belonging to Dr Barnardos. When I got back to the village it poured with rain all afternoon and so the fete was cancelled. So that the ice cream was not wasted we went around the village and gave it away. Not a lot of profit made on that day.

Nature Notes for January

The shortest day is now behind us, so we can look forward to snowdrops pushing through soon to be followed by crocuses and daffodils although at the time of writing -27th December- I still have marigolds and fuchsia in flower.

During December I haven't seen many rarities, but I saw a peregrine falcon which I managed to photograph at Cley and one, possibly the same one, was seen in Trimmingham. Also, at Cley on the same visit I watched at least 14 Marsh Harriers coming in to roost as dusk was approaching about 4 pm, a lovely sight.

I went for a walk in Felbrigg park and was looking at a herd of sheep when I became aware of other movements and mixed in with the sheep were about 50 to 60 pink footed geese just grazing and not calling. On another visit I heard an unfamiliar call, something like a goose call. I traced the calls to a large dead oak tree in the middle of the park. To my surprise about 25 feet up the tree were 2 Egyptian geese. I know that some ducks nest in trees, such as Mandarin ducks but I have never seen a goose up a tree.

Closer to home I saw a single swan flying north as well as flights of geese in the evenings. One afternoon down Middle Street there was a reappearance of the flock of linnets that I saw a few weeks ago.

The blackbirds are back in the gardens and I have also had long tailed tits on the feeders as well as great and blue tits, goldfinch and greenfinch.
